A Life Of Search

Synopsis

Elton Trueblood understood his spiritual journey to be a life of search. The reader of this book will come to know Trueblood as one of the great Christian leaders of this century. In his introduction, James R. Newby describes Trueblood as a "Christian encourager" who "encouraged students of all ages to excel," while he personally maintained a "sensitivity and openness in the worship of God." A study guide makes this a good book for adult Sunday School classes or reading groups for Christian thinkers.
